

CONFERENCE & ANNUAL MEETING'2019

GENERAL INFORMATION

Tallinn, Estonia

How to arrive in Tallinn

There are good flight connections to Tallinn, Estonia, from major cities in Europe, a well functioning ferry connection from Helsinki, Finland (2,5 hours), and some ferries from Stockholm, Sweden (12-15 hours), too.

Tallin Airport

Airport: The Lennart meri Airport is about 4 kilometres (2 miles) from Town Hall Square (Raekoja plats).

Tram nr 4, to Viru

Bus nr.2, to Viru

Taxi – all taxis are legal at the airport, 10 EUR to the city center

Ferry: Taxi – Tallinnk (1921) and Tulika (1200) are most secure, check the fees on the cars!

less than 10 euro to the city center

Bus Num. 20A, does not go by very often, stop at Viru

15 minutes by foot

Bus: There are good quality coach connections from all the Baltic capitals, and even from Russia, Poland and Germany.

Car: The Via Baltica motorway (part of European route 67 from Helsinki to Prague) connects Tallinn to the Lithuanian/Polish border through Latvia.

Passport and visa

Estonia is a Schengen area, so please, check local authorities for the potential visa requirements in order to enter Estonia. For residents in Schengen regions, please, bring your passport or any other personal identification approved in all Schengen states.