

Journal on Psychodrama theory, practice, training and research
(ZPS Special edition, Springer)

Call for Articles

We are delighted to invite you to submit an abstract for consideration for the Special edition on Psychodrama theory, practice, training and research. The Journal is peer reviewed and will assure high quality of publishing and recognition in the scientific and professional community. This edition will be connected to the ZPS (Journal for Psychodrama and Sociometry) which is published by Springer.

The aims and scope of this journal are to:

- include a broad range of psychodrama, sociodrama, sociometry and action methods in education with children and young people, adult learning and training, supervision, psychological counselling and psychotherapy, social work, organisational learning and counselling, conflict management, peace education and community work.
- promote and share current and relevant high quality articles in psychodrama and action methods practice, training and research.
- have a balance of contributions including research, innovations in theory, methodology and application in practice.
- give a platform for practitioners, trainers and researchers in psychodrama and action methods upholding professional excellence.
- enhance integration of psychodrama and action methods through encouraging sharing and cooperation with other modalities.
- reflect application in different settings, e.g. single or dyadic work, group-work, application of psychodrama and action methods in organisational context or in local communities.

About the submission: it should contain the following sections:

Title:

Abstract (500 words) with information like the background, theory, methods, results, conclusions, literature etc.

Authors Name/s, background/s and affiliations of authors

Please name preferred section in journal for your article, if accepted:

Theory/ Practice/ Methods/ Training/ Research

All submitted work should be written in English, original and not under consideration for other journals and represent current practice, i.e. within three years of 2019.

Extended deadline for submissions of articles: 1st of December 2020

Please submit the abstract to: hannes.krall@aau.at

Thank you in advance for your contributions.

With kind regards,

Kate Kirk

Ana Sofia Cruz

Hannes Krall