FEPTO Psychodrama Students Award 2019

For the three best student theses of the year

Goals:

- Enhancing the reputation of psychodrama in their specific community of health, education, management or theatre and in general.
- Encouraging students to be a model for other trainees in order to develop the method.
- Encouraging training institutes to enhance the quality of theses in order to train students for research, writing and publishing.
- Motivate training and accrediting institutes to organize their training on a high standard.

Criteria:

- The thesis should contribute to practitioner research in psychodrama in order to assure quality of work in psychodrama and/or to develop the method further
- The thesis should be a study of excellent quality regarding theory, methodology, and presentation.
- The thesis should provide a clear question of research/ inquiry, an appropriate method of investigation and a soundness of structure and scientific writing.
- The theoretical part should show an in-depth substantive dialogue with the chosen topic including current literature and relevant literature from related fields.
- Research methodology/ methods of inquiry should be presented and applied according common scientific standards
- The study should potentially serve as a role model for other students to follow.

Guidelines for abstract and extended abstract:

The abstract, summarizing objectives, method and findings (with 200-300 words) and the extended abstract (with 1000-2500 words) should include title, author's name, surname, affiliation, and e-mail. The extended abstract should provide keywords, introduction, methodology, findings, conclusion, and references.

Application:

- If the thesis is in English, send it in together with abstract and extended abstract.
- If it is written in another language other than English two supervisors/trainers, who could read the thesis in the original language, should write a recommendation according to the above stated criteria. It should include all reasons why the thesis is recommended.
- The complete thesis (9000-15000 words), abstract and extended abstract in English should be sent in pdf format to the award committee by the end of February 2019.
